WELCOME TO THE 2010 NEW MUSIC MIAMI ISCM FESTIVAL SERIES

It is with great pleasure that I welcome you to Florida International University, the Spanish Cultural Center, and the Wolfsonian - FIU on Miami Beach for the 2010 New Music Miami ISCM Festival Series. It is a great privilege to be able to spend time over the next 6 months with some of the most innovative composers and artists, and some of the best musicians from around the world. In addition to being an opportunity for the exchange of ideas the festival serves as a place where the variety of aesthetic concerns emanating from different parts of the world can be celebrated. It is my hope that our guests and audiences will be enriched spiritually and culturally with the music and ideas expressed in this festival. It is also an opportunity for the community to come to FIU and for FIU to come to the community. Once again it is a great pleasure to welcome all of you to this very special annual event.

Orlando Jacinto Garcia, Festival Director

ABOUT THE 2010 NEW MUSIC MIAMI ISCM FESTIVAL SERIES

The 2010 festival of contemporary cutting edge music and video art continues to build on the success of previous festivals and will focus on chamber, orchestral, electronic music and video art from around the world performed by some of the most exciting performers of contemporary music. Eight concerts and several pre-concert Meet the Artists sessions as well as forums and master classes will be presented along with over 20 South Florida and world premieres. As with last year's event the 2010 festival is being held over 6 months allowing for more interaction between the guests, students, and audiences. The 2010 festival will showcase such varied ensembles as the NODUS Ensemble, the FIU New Music Ensemble celebrating its 20th year, the FIU Symphony Orchestra, the FIU Symphonic Wind Ensemble, the Amernet String Quartet, the Zagreb based Cantus Ensemble, and guest performers flutist Margaret Lancaster and electric violinist Todd Reynolds, as well as Pulitzer prize winning composer Bernard Rands and international guest composers Alfredo Rugeles from Venezuela and Flores Chaviano from Spain. This year's festival again includes video and new forms of technology in concerts being held at venues as varied as FIU's Wertheim Performing Arts Center and The Patricia & Phillip Frost Art Museum, the Spanish Cultural Center in Coral Gables, and the Wolfsonian – FIU on Miami Beach. In its 12th year, the New Music Miami Festival has established itself as one of the premiere cutting edge arts events in the South Florida area.
